CASE NUMBER: 3:11-CR-00085-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall waive all rights to confidentiality regarding mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the supervising United States Probation Officer and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the mental health treatment provider.
2. The defendant shall comply with the special conditions for sex offenders as adopted by this Court in Local Rule 83.10(b).
3. The defendant shall participate in a program of sex offender mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall waive all rights to confidentiality regarding sex offender mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the United States Probation Officer and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.
4. The defendant shall have no direct or third-party contact with the victims or any other children under the age of 18 without the prior written consent of the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall not be at any residence where children under the age of 18 are residing without the prior written permission of the probation officer, nor shall he frequent or remain about any place where children under the age of 18 normally congregate or any business that targets child customers.
6. The defendant shall not possess any printed photographs or recorded material that he may use for the purpose of deviant sexual arousal, nor shall he frequent any places where such material is available for the purpose of deviant sexual arousal.
7. The defendant shall not accept any employment or participate in any volunteer activities requiring unsupervised contact with children under the age of 18.
8. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, vehicle, or any area over which he exercises control to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner without prior notice or search warrant to determine if he is in compliance with the condition of supervision which prohibits possession of pornographic materials. Refusal to submit to such search is a violation of the conditions of supervision. The defendant shall warn anyone with whom he shares residence that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
9. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where he resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on-line computer service at any location (including employment) without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network. Any approval by the probation officer shall be subject to any conditions set by the probation officer with respect to that approval.
11. The defendant shall not possess or use any data encryption technique or program.
12. The defendant shall submit to the probation officer and/or probation service representative conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer equipment, which may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with this condition and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection, and allow at the direction of the probation officer installation on his computer, at his expense, any hardware or software systems to monitor his computer use.
13. The defendant shall refrain from accessing via computer any material that relates to the activity in which he engaged in committing the instant offense, namely child pornography.
14. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon him.
15. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, except that he may, with the prior approval of the probation officer, use a

D Payment in __ (e.g., equal, weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ __ over a period of __ (e.g., months or years), to commence __ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or

E Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within __ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or

F Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

The defendant shall make restitution payments from any wages he may earn in prison in accordance with the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Any portion of the restitution that is not paid in full at the time of his release from imprisonment shall become a condition of supervision.

Upon release from incarceration, the defendant shall pay restitution at the minimum rate of ten percent of monthly gross income until such time as the Court may alter that payment schedule in the interests of justice.

The government may enforce the full amount of restitution ordered at any time, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3612, 3613 and 3664(m).

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. Unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States attorney, all criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, shall be made to U.S. District Court, 800 Market St., Suite 130, Knoxville, TN 37902. Payments shall be in the form of a check or a money order, made payable to U.S. District Court, with a notation of the case number including defendant number.
